Pluto in Gate 5: A Thought for Consideration

By Eleanor Haspel-Portner, Ph.D.

With Pluto entering into Gate 5 at the end of October, you might consider a few things. First, this is the first time since 1991 that Pluto has activated a Gate in the Sleep Design Matrix. The following table shows the activations by Pluto in the Sleep Design Matrix since 1900:

1906 - 1911 Gate 12
1911 - 1913 Gate 15 and Gate 12
1914 - 1918 Gate 15

1926 - 1928 Gate 53
1930 - 1932 Gate 53 and Gate 62
1932 - 1936 Gate 62

1978 - 1980 Gate 57

1982 - 1983 Gate 50
1984 - 1985 Gate 50 and Gate 28
1986 - 1987 Gate 28
1988 - 1991 Gate 1

2000 - 2002 Gate 5

The 5th Gate in the Sleep Design Matrix represents a Gate in the Earth Plane that has to do with time. It has to do with the possibility of entering into a timeless void, of tapping in to things both past and present. In the Sleep Design Matrix, there is no past, present, or future because in that dimension, as we all know from our psychological Dream Analysis work, time breaks down in terms of relativity. Through Gate 5 in the Sleep and Dream Design Matrices is a potential mutative field through which the Dreamer can learn from the Waking consciousness field and derive a new grasp, a new understanding of Consciousness and of life itself (cf. The Sleep Design System, Unified Life Sciences, 2000, 2003 p. 34).

Gate 5 flows from the Power format channel of the Sleep Design Matrix and, thus, is related to the powerful movement from the cellular level of the organism and of the archetype of the physiological manifestation to the manifestation in the form through patterns which support or do not support life at its very core. It is this underpinning of patterned structure that allows us to relate to other patterns in the cosmos. We have the archetype of our cellular structure and the relationship with the patterning of the universe at the core of our cellular structure. It is during the sleep and rest cycle that these forces come together through the collective energies and give us a sense of belonging in the pattern of life and of time. On the other side of Gate 5 is Gate 15 which in the Sleep Design is Chaos. It is the polarity of time and of timelessness and/or chaos that can be deeply revealing and also deeply disturbing.

Sleep itself relates to the pattern of life in its very cycle. It is essential for all beings on the planet to rest daily. We are part of a circadian rhythm (24 hour rotational movement of the Earth) and it is this rhythm that sets the clock of the body and of our functioning. It is the connection of this rhythm that allows for all beings on the planet to seed the collective unconscious of one another through the very cycle of sleep and specifically the Lunar Sleep Design.

Through Gate 5 in the Sleep Design a great synthesis of different perspectives becomes possible. In Gate 15 time loses its dimensional quality and order breaks down. The Channel 15/5, the Channel of Being in the Flow in the Basic Waking Solar Design breaks down into the flow itself in the Sleep Designs both Solar and Lunar. So in the Triple Matrix is the play between pattern and chaos and the integration of that paradox. [We have learned, since this paper was written in 2000, that the Sleep Design content are communicated neurologically through the 64 Gate Lunar Dream Design and through that 64 Gate Matrix the information from Sleep is translated to Waking Consciousness.] Furthermore, Channel 15/5 establishes the timing within the body. In the waking state time is relative but in the Sleep Designs, it is the flow itself.

With the Sleep Design activation occurring on a planetary level beginning at the end of October, the impact goes deeper than when a transit affects the Waking Solar Design but does not affect the Matrix during sleep in the integrated way it does when the Triple Matrix is involved.

Looking at the cycles of when the Triple Matrix has been affected by Pluto and when it has not been so affected results in a rather profound revelation of world events as they are related to the collective consciousness. We begin to see the cycle in world events. In the financial markets of the world the lack of predictability and the chaos that has been occurring in the stock market of late, for example, is the readjustment of the energies as the focus changes and as the deeper layer of the consciousness of the planet is being brought into a different level of alignment. In the Middle East, we see a similar destabilization as a readjustment occurs. Similarly, other political situations are destabilized as timing and re-patterning occurs.

Use this information in looking back over your own life events for this century as well as over the historical events of the century and ponder the implications.

Note: This paper, first published in 2003 by Unified Life Sciences, shows the origins and development of work that evolved into Noble Sciences Sacred Synthesis. It is published in its original form to preserve the integrity of the material and so readers have a sense of the roots and complexity of Noble Sciences Sacred Synthesis. Some of the terminology has been refined through Noble Sciences work.

About the Author

Eleanor Haspel-Portner, Ph.D. passionately synthesizes esoteric wisdom and scientific discovery. With her Ph.D. from The University of Chicago, Department of Comparative Human Development, Eleanor is uniquely qualified to integrate Social Sciences (psychology, biology, anthropology, sociology) Research with a wide array of esoteric studies.

Eleanor leads the research team at Unified Life Sciences www.unifiedlifesciences.com. She vastly expanded the Human Design System based on her scientific research into a multidimensional verifiable personality theory of functioning consciousness. Her work on the Multidimensional Human Design System has been verified on over 45,000 cases. It is presented in practical terms and tools through Noble Sciences, LLC.
